

Dr. med. Jürgen Bachmann

Specializing in clinical pain therapy focused on acupuncture and the musculoskeletal system since 1979.

Head of the Departments of Pain Therapy, Rheumatology and Rehabilitation within a comprehensive and integrative center for disorders of the musculoskeletal system in Hattingen / Ruhr since 1993.

Studying medicine and sinology in Münster/Westfalia, Edinburgh/Scotland, Sri Lanka, Newfoundland/Canada and graduating from Münster University 1984 followed by several years of training in anesthesiology, cardiac and vascular surgery, orthopedic rehabilitation, orthopedic surgery and rheumatology, with additional qualifications in manual medicine, acupuncture, physical therapy and sports medicine.

Postgraduate studies in Wuhan, Shanghai, Beijing, Tianjin PRC 1987-1989 focusing on Chinese orthopedics and traumatology

DÄGfA teacher since 1992.

Numerous scientific presentations and teaching commitments in medical undergraduate and postgraduate training in the fields of acupuncture, traditional Chinese medicine and orthopedics, pain therapy and manual medicine for the University of Bochum, German Society for Manual Medicine, University of Witten / Herdecke, German medical Council.

Published monographs:

Akupunktur am Bewegungssystem, Enke Verlag Stuttgart 2000

Chinesische Medizin in der Orthopädie Urban & Fischer /Elsevier 2008